

Posting of Public Information Policy of the Sam T. Wilson Public Library

The Sam T. Wilson Public Library is pleased to post information of general interest to the people of Arlington and other library users. Information pertaining to local non-profits, charity, and government events, programs and performances will be accepted.

Library materials will have priority for use of the library bulletin boards and display cases. Priority will also be given to events and activities occurring in the Town of Arlington.

The library will designate a space for the display of materials and reserves the right to limit quantities. Display will depend on the space available.

No literature from commercial enterprises or of a commercial nature will be posted.

The primary purpose of posted literature must be to inform the public of the organization's program, services and events.

No personal advertisements or notices will be posted or distributed.

All materials must be submitted to the library director for prior approval for posting.
