

Thank you for your interest in sharing your talent with us! The City of Ashland is embarking on a new brand promising that creativity will be in the DNA of everything we do. Many opportunities will become available to musicians, artists, magicians, and more throughout the year from street or restaurant performances to large festival opportunities. By submitting this form, you will be included in a database of performers/creators that will be considered for city and non-city sponsored events. Information from this database could be shared with community businesses and organizations at request. All levels of creators are requested to fill out this form- from student to professional levels.

This completed form can be emailed to events@ashlandky.gov or mailed to the Visit Ashland 1509 Winchester Ave Ashland, KY 41101 with attention to Special Events Coordinator. This form will be available on the city, tourism, and AIM websites: www.ashlandky.gov www.visitaky.com www.ashlandinmotion.org
