RULE 32 Child Restraint Rule.

This Rule shall govern the use of physical restraints on children appearing in court proceedings before the Athens County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas, General Division.

(A) There shall be a presumption that physical restraint not be utilized unless the judge or magistrate before whom the child is appearing makes an individualized determination on the record that there is no less restrictive alternative to the use of physical restraint and that the physical restraint of the child is necessary because of either of the following:

(1) The child represents a current and significant threat to the safety of the child's self or other persons in the courtroom;

(2) There is a significant risk the child will flee the courtroom.

(B) The judge or magistrate shall permit any party to the proceeding to be heard on the issue of whether the use of physical restraint is necessary for that particular child at that particular proceeding.

(C) If physical restraint is found necessary by the judge or magistrate, the restraint shall be the least restrictive necessary to meet the risk requiring the restraint and in a manner which does not unnecessarily restrict the movement of the child's hands.

IN THE MATTER OF JURY TRIALS : EMERGENCY ORDER

FILED

MAR 19 2020

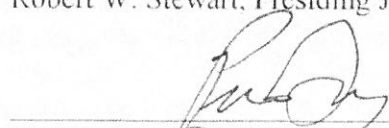

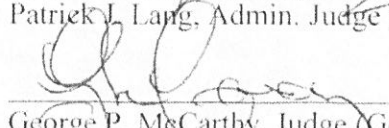

State and national emergency declarations have been made by appropriate officials in response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. An exhaustive list of the dangers of this pandemic and officially-suggested measures intended to slow the spread of the same is unnecessary under the circumstances. Such dangers and measures are well-known. A thorough recounting of the same can be found in an order from the Superior Court of King County, State of Washington, in which the court concurs. See <https://tinyurl.com/KingCtyOrder>. The Ohio Attorney General has also opined on the instant matter. See Ohio Atty.Gen. Op. No 2020-002.

Given the state of emergency, the Court hereby Orders as follows:

1. For emergency public health reasons, jury summons are suspended until May 4, 2020.
2. For emergency public health reasons, all scheduled jury trials in this Court between the date of this Order and May 1, 2020, are continued until May 4, 2020.
3. For emergency public health reasons, these sua sponte continuances are reasonable and necessary under R.C. 2945.72(H).
4. The time between the date of this Order and the next scheduled trial date shall be excluded when calculating a defendant's time for trial. R.C. 2945.71, 2945.72.
5. All civil jury trials now scheduled between the date of this Order and May 4, 2020, are continued, and shall be rescheduled by later Order.
6. This Order shall be reviewed before May 4, 2020, to determine the necessity of further continuances in light of then-existing public health conditions.
