

Phase One involved moving the existing parking lot to the east end of the building and installing screening.

