

Materials have been delivered to the site to start the foundation work.

A lot of dirt was removed where the old parking lot in front of the building used to be. Steel sheeting was pounded into the ground in front of the building to maintain the integrity of the existing structure.

East module foundation set, pipe installed and concrete poured.

The west module foundation block has been set.

