New Business:

- A. Artwork for Chambers: Blue Dart Art dropped off some art pieces envisioned for our Council Chambers. Council discussed their interest in and thoughts about the art.
- B. Aquapark Resolution 2021-4 (See Attachment 1): Pedersen motioned, seconded by Kelly to approve the resolution as presented. Council had some additional questions regarding night security, storage, location, the serenity of the lake and pricing. This resolution just shows support for the project; there will be a contract with finalized details.

Roll Call Vote:

Ayes: Conner, Williams, Danzy-Yeager, Pedersen, Luckey and Kelly

Nays:

Absent: Johnson

Abstain:

Motion Carried.

Public Comment:

Anna Garcia expressed her concern about sidewalks on N. O’Keefe that need to be repaired and asked about a tree on the corner of York. She was informed that N. O’Keefe will be repaved and they will address any portion of sidewalks in need of repair as part of that project.

Chris Bergen wanted to remind everyone about the Memorial Day parade and wanted to ask about a sound system along the parade route.

Carolyn Kelly is concerned about the corner of Rowland and Jefferson; she states the street needs to be repaved. She is also concerned about serenity of lake with a water park on it. She also asked about the sale of Southside Park and how it was able to be sold.

Miscellaneous: Council Concerns/Items:

Clerk Betty informed Council of a special meeting needed on the 24th of May to approve some resolutions to apply for grant funding.

Danzy-Yeager asked about another park to replace Southside Park. Conner replied they were looking at a few locations.

Adjournment:

President Pro-tem Williams declared the meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m. by unanimous agreement.

Respectfully submitted: _____
Tonia Betty, Village Clerk
