Memorandum of Understanding

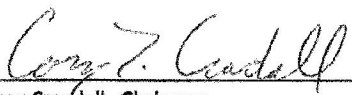

By and between the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission – Division of State Parks (Commission) and the Keith County Visitor’s Committee, an advisory board of the Keith County Board of Commissioners (Keith County) agreed upon this 5th day of May, in the year 2021.

General Terms

1. The Commission agrees to provide a two thousand ($2,000) dollar payment to Keith County to support the Visitor Impact Study project, upon completion of the aforementioned study, as defined by the Nebraska Tourism Marketing Grant Program and subsequent application from Keith County dated 10 December, 2020 to that program. Payment will conform to established Commission payment processes.
2. Keith County agrees to offer the opportunity to participate to the Regional Park Supervisor, or his designee, in any discussions, meetings or other gatherings, to the extent practical, pertaining to the Visitor Impact Study’s creation and finalization.
3. In the event the Visitor Impact Study is not completed, this Memorandum of Understanding shall be null and void and the Commission shall incur no responsibility to provide payment to Keith County for any reason.
4. Keith County shall make available to the Commission all data, reporting and any other documents created by their Vendor, which are made available to them, as a part of the Visitor Impact Study.
5. Upon successful completion of the Visitor Impact Study, Keith County shall submit an invoice to the Commission, courtesy of the Regional Park Supervisor at 1475 Hwy 61 North, Ogallala, NE 69153, with a detailed request for the payment of $2,000.
