

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS
MARSHALL COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
Emergency Meeting Regarding Coronavirus
March 12, 2020 - 9:00 A.M.
Marshall County Boardroom

The Emergency Meeting of the County Board regarding the Coronavirus State of Emergency was called to order by Chairperson Kenneth Borowicz with Stacy Laudal Ruth Finseth, Jon Tinnes, Krista East, Rodger Haugtvedt, Linda Hamrick, Alison Wall, Liz Dustin, Chris Kujava, Josh Johnston, Jim Duckstad, Kenneth Borowicz, Don Aandal, Gary Kiesow, Scott Peters, Fran Tougas and Ashley Frederickson attending. Lon Aune was available by phone.

County Public Health Administrator Fran Tougas provided updates and information on status of the virus and current steps that are recommended by the Center for Disease Control in relation to the same. Emergency Management Administrator Josh Johnston also provided input on steps that are recommended to combat the virus.

After a thorough discussion by all present, it is understood that Marshall County will follow leads and communication by the public Health Administrator and Emergency Manager on future developments for safety, County operation procedures and dissemination of information to County Employees and the Public.

For now the County will conduct business as usual, emphasizing that if an employee is sick to encourage them to stay home, to use hand sanitizers, to wash hands thoroughly and often and to follow guidelines given for prevention by the Center for Disease Control. The Board and group above will meet in Emergency Session as necessary to develop needed future action plans based on information received regarding the spread of the virus.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00 a.m. by Chairman Borowicz.
