

MIDVALE CITY, UTAH
RESOLUTION NO. 2021-R-07

A RESOLUTION FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE
MIDVALE CITY EMERGENCY OPERATIONS PLAN (EOP)

WHEREAS, Midvale City recognizes it is at risk to a wide range of natural, technological, and man-made hazards and there is a need for ongoing emergency operations planning; and

WHEREAS, this Emergency Operations Plan is needed to coordinate and support Midvale City response efforts in the event of an emergency or disaster and during the aftermath thereof; and

WHEREAS, this plan will provide a framework for Midvale City to plan and perform its emergency functions during a disaster or emergency. Tasked organizations within the plan have the responsibility to prepare and maintain standard operating procedures and commit to the training and exercises required to support this plan. Under the direction of the mayor, city manager, and the emergency management planner, this plan will be revised and updated as required. All recipients are responsible to submit any changes that might result in its improvement or increase its usefulness; and

WHEREAS, this Midvale City Emergency Operations Plan supersedes any other emergency operation plans that existed prior to this date; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Homeland Security Presidential Directive 5, all agencies, departments, and organizations having responsibilities delineated in this Emergency Operations Plan will use the National Incident Management System. The National Incident Management System was adopted by Resolution 2020-R-18. This system will allow proper coordination between local, state and federal organizations. The Incident Command System, as a part of the National Incident Management System, will enable effective and efficient incident management by integrating a combination of facilities, equipment, personnel, procedures and communications operating with a common organizational structure. All on-scene management of incidents will be conducted using the Incident Command System. This plan is promulgated as the Midvale City Emergency Operations Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and City Council of Midvale City, this new Emergency Operations Plan is officially approved and adopted this 16th day of February 2021.

Robert M. Hale, Mayor
