Hero on a Mission

Norway Room

Most people think life is something that just happens to you, that you are just at the mercy of your experiences and circumstances. But what if you started thinking about life as something you actually get to create? Whether you want to admit it or not, you are mostly in control of your experience. After you complete this workshop, you will have the tools you need to create the life you want and live a life of meaning. Why? Because you will be a Hero on a Mission.

Do you ever feel like you're aimlessly wandering through your life with no clear direction or meaning?

- You're not sure what to focus on each day
- You don't feel like you're making progress on your most important projects
- You set goals but don't actually achieve them
- You don't have a clear vision of your life for the next 10 years
- You aren't sure how you can be most productive
- You wake up in a fog and feel like your life is meaningless

Whether you want to experience a deeper sense of meaning or just learn how to be more personally productive, this session could change everything.

Just Say the Thing: How to Be Instantly Understood, Every Time

It's hard to get our ideas to spread. The real problem is that we focus too much on how amazing our idea is, rather than how clear, understandable, and relevant it is. But in truth, the more you know about something, the harder it is to explain it to an outsider. In this session, you're going to learn how TED speakers capture attention, earn trust, and build meaningful relationships, and how you can apply the same techniques to elevate your communication.

9:45 – 10:00 a.m.

Break

The Customer is the Hero

We hate selling, and we hate being sold to. And yet for better or worse, everyone is in sales now. If you're not selling a product or service, you're selling an idea. But a great salesperson is not someone who is only interested in selling a product but rather someone who is interested in making people's lives better. Inviting people into a story is the best way to sell them on your ideas and creating meaningful change at work, at home, and in your community.
