ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 1989-2

Effective immediately pursuant to MCR 8.110, the following policy shall be utilized in the handling of juvenile cases in Monroe County.

In all delinquency cases within the jurisdiction of the Monroe County Probate Court, Juvenile Division, any juvenile offender who is detained at the Monroe County Youth Center, or a resident of the Residential Treatment Program, shall not be transported to the Courthouse for any hearing, excluding trial. All hearings will be conducted in the hearing room of the Monroe County Youth Center by the judge assigned to the case by blind draw.

All preliminary hearings and informal matters will continue to be heard by a referee as assigned by the judge reflected as being the presiding judge over the specific case. All formal hearings, including dispositional hearings, pre-trials, show-case petition hearings, and review hearings, will be conducted by the judge of record for the matter as assigned by blind draw.
