Dear Mike,

Please let this letter memorialize the telephone conversation we had on November 28th. As I stated, the recent beer ordinance violation was submitted to you in error and as an oversight. As the State Alcoholic Beverage Commission regulates your store and alcohol sales, including beer sales, the City does not have the authority to impose any beer sale penalties to you. This was merely an oversight in bringing this violation before the Beer Board. As the City regulates beer sales and package stores have now begun selling beer, we believed that package stores fell under this same City regulation. We have since learned that the ABC will also be the beer regulator for package store beer sales. We will correct this at the next Beer Board meeting and remove Chuck's Package Store as a beer ordinance violator. Therefore, there is no penalty owed to the City from your store, nor will there be any type of beer sale suspension imposed on your store by the City.

Thank you for understanding and we apologize for any inconvenience. Have a Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

Lauren A. Carroll
