MUNICIPAL COURT - IMPORTANT NOTICE

Due to COVID-19, the City of New London – Weyauwega Joint Municipal Court has canceled ALL court sessions scheduled for Wednesday, June 17, 2020.

- If you have already paid the forfeiture for your citation/s, or entered a not guilty plea, there is no need to take further action.
- If your citation is NOT marked “must appear” on the top of the page and you DO NOT wish to contest it, you will be found guilty by default and have 60 days to pay your forfeitures.
- If your citation is marked “must appear”, you will be summoned to the next court session once a date has been determined.
- If you intend to contest your ticket, you must contact the court before June 17, 2020. You may call, email or mail your written plea to the addresses above.
- If you do not intend to enter a not guilty plea, but would like to speak with Judge Shaw, email or call the court before June 17, 2020. Leave a message and we will return your phone call if we do not answer.
- If you have a scheduled pretrial conference for June 17, 2020 you will be summoned to the next court session once a date has been determined.
- If you have a scheduled Good Cause / Indigency Hearing scheduled for June 17, 2020 you will be summoned to the next court session once a date has been determined.

If you have any questions or concerns, please email or call the court office. If we do not answer the phone, leave a message, we will return your phone call when we return.

Note: If your mailbox is full or is not set up we cannot leave a message for you when we return your call.
