Please see the attached 2013 Annual Report on Municipal Operations, detailing a number of activities and accomplishments of City of Sikeston departments.

DPS Minority Scholarship Program
The City of Sikeston is currently seeking applicants for the Department of Public Safety Minority Scholarship Program. The program is open to both female and minority Sikeston High School students who are interested in careers in law enforcement or the fire service. The selected applicant will receive $1,500 in tuition and fees per semester ($3,000 per year) to pursue an education in law enforcement/fire service at Southeast Missouri State University. Following completion of the course of study, the student will be provided with employment opportunities with the Sikeston Department of Public Safety. Interested students should contact Guidance Counselor Kim Thornbrough at Sikeston High School for information and applications to the program. The application deadline is April 7, 2014.

DPS Recognized for Torch Run Contributions
Sikeston Department of Public Safety employees recently participated in the Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics. For their contributions, Sikeston DPS was recognized as the Outstanding Agency of the Year for Southeast Missouri, and Public Safety Officer Shane Washburn was named Outstanding Unsung Hero for coordinating Sikeston DPS’s involvement in the Torch Run and associated fundraising efforts. Washburn and the many other officers involved in these efforts demonstrate the character and compassion of our public safety professionals.

Tractor Sold at Auction
The City Council previously authorized staff to dispose of a surplus tractor which has been troublesome to maintain. At Council’s suggestion, the tractor was sold at auction by DeWitt Auction. After the auction company’s commission, the city is receiving $21,675 for the tractor.

Sign Ups Underway for Sikeston Corporate Games

ANNUAL REPORT ON MUNICIPAL OPERATIONS 2013

The information provided herein is a compilation of those activities and projects completed by the management and staff of the City of Sikeston during 2013.

City of Sikeston, MO
In 2013 our community suffered the loss of Councilman Thomas Hedrick. At the time of his passing, Mr. Hedrick was serving his second term as the Ward 2 Council Representative.

Jay Lancaster joined the City as Public Works Director in late November, and Jonathan “JD” Douglass assumed the position of City Manager in December. Also in 2013, six employees, with a total of more than 160 years of experience, retired from the service of the City.

A number of significant issues were addressed by the City Council during 2013. Foremost, was the extension of the 1¢ sales tax for an additional ten years. With the country’s economic downtown and resulting high unemployment, municipal tax revenues have not performed to their original projections. This, coupled with the higher costs of doing business, has a created revenue shortfall over the past few years. While adoption of this measure does not remedy the City’s revenue issues, it does retain a vital revenue stream for future operations.

FEMA’s new floodplain designations impacted a large number of Sikeston’s property owners. In response, the City contracted with AMEC (FEMA’s engineering provider) and Allgeier, Martin & Associates to identify errors in the new floodplain designations. A draft request for a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) is currently being reviewed for consideration to be submitted to FEMA for formal consideration in early 2014.

Other significant projects include the expansion and construction of the Three Rivers Community College Campus, on-going airport improvements, Burlington-Northern Santa Fe Railroad crossing improvements, and improvements to Downtown Sikeston’s primary intersection (Kingshighway at Malone Avenue).

A report on municipal operations, by department, follows:

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT:
Function: This department is responsible for the development and administration of programs designed to encourage new business and industry to locate to Sikeston, retain existing business and industry, and assist in the expansion of existing business and industry.

Economic Development initiated and coordinated the Basic Skills for Employees Program in 2012, and the program continues to thrive with 4 additional sessions taught in 2013. Classes are taught by plant managers, education leaders and other business representatives. This program was developed to address the long and short term solutions to our community’s workforce problems. It has been very successful and continues to evolve.

The DED monitored the completion of the new public safety building through the Sikeston Economic Development Corporation, and in cooperation with the Finance Director submitted quarterly reports to the Federal Government.

Trade shows and conferences attended this past year include the Governor’s Economic Development Conference, SEMA-AAPEX, ICSC, SEDC, WestPack, Lawn & Garden Show, Do It Best Show, Missouri Partnership Trade Show, and a meeting with Kentucky Transportation Cabinet representatives.

DED staff assisted the Sikeston Convention & Visitors Bureau with marketing, CVB Photo contest, and event projects.
Local community involvement is important to the DED. Staff attends Historic Downtown Sikeston meetings and events and also works with several downtown committees. Staff also attends Chamber of Commerce luncheons and meetings and gives presentations to local civic groups.

The Sikeston Department of Economic Development continues to work with Missouri DED officials and the Missouri Partnership organization to bring industry leads to Sikeston. The DED completed proposals for many industry prospects and gave several industry tours.

The Brown Shoe Building was donated to the City of Sikeston in 2013 and the DED was able to locate Carr Textile Company to the building. They will open in early 2014 and employ approximately 25 people.

DED staff maintains and updates the DED website and the Location One website.

The DED continues to work on new retail leads for Sikeston meeting with developers and sending information as needed. CVS Pharmacy and Colton’s Steakhouse opened in 2013 and the new Holiday Inn hotel broke ground at the adjoining property. Kroger announced the opening of their Ruler Foods store in the former Market Place Building. The DED continues to field inquiries from consultants interested in that building and several others in Sikeston.

Approximately $60,000 in lease rent was generated from the Essex Building this past year. The DED located TaskMaster Components to the back part of the Essex Building, which added an additional $36,000 in lease rent and approximately 25 jobs in Sikeston.

The Department of Economic Development was able to locate The Lock Company to the old Media Press Building. They will employ approximately 50 people over the next 2 years.

The DED monitored the construction progress of the new Do It Best, Inc. distribution center at the Sikeston, Business, Education and Technology Park. They plan to begin operation in January, 2014 and will employ 150 people.

As the City’s revenue stream remains flat, management has undertaken efforts to increase productivity while reducing operating costs. The effective use of technology has been the primary tool in this effort. Over the past year the IT Unit migrated the City’s multi-unit server farm to a virtual-server environment thus reducing hardware and management expenditures, and providing greater redundancy of vital data.

In the on-going effort to convert paper documents to digital, the City’s budget and monthly Council information packets are now generated and distributed in an electronic format. This has reduced both supply and labor costs. Likewise, City Code is available digitally (via the Internet) to staff and the public.

To enhance operation efficiency and reduce storage costs, Governmental Services implemented a digital storage system to scan, index and retrieve permanent and long-term retention documents. City Council ordinances and minutes are being scanned using OCR technology. Likewise, Municipal Court Staff is using scanning technologies to store and access cases with extended retention requirements.

During 2013 IT Technician Kris Greene retired. Sam Villagrana now serves in this position.

In addition to administrative duties, Governmental Services staff managed or participated in the following:

Historic Downtown Sikeston: The Governmental Services Director serves as the City’s representative to the Historic Downtown Sikeston Board of Directors.
