ITEMS OF BUSINESS

Delta Area Economic Opportunity Corporation (DAEOC) CDBG Grant Proposal

DAEOC is a private not-for-profit Community Action Agency serving Dunklin, Mississippi, New Madrid, Pemiscot, Scott, and Stoddard Counties. It administers programs designed to combat poverty and provide economic opportunities in the Bootheel.

DAEOC is applying for Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds to expand services in Sikeston. Because DAEOC is a private not-for-profit organization, the grant application requires that the CDBG eligible host city sponsor the application. The grant will be used to co-locate central office facilities with a learning center, in Sikeston. The expanded facility will house 24 new Early Head Start positions, relocation of approximately 50 existing positions, and will create at least 4 new support positions and three new senior level management positions. The plan will revitalize a building located in a recovering west-end neighborhood and positions their service providers within a high concentration of income-eligible potential clients.

The initial cost estimates for the project are between 1.75 and 2 million dollars. Approximately one million dollars has been committed to the project for purchase and renovation of the portion of the project related to the Early Head Start learning center by the Office of Head Start.
DAEOC is actively pursuing funding and financing opportunities for the balance. One of those options is the utilization of CDBG Funds through the Missouri Department of Economic Development. Mr. Joel Evans requested the City of Sikeston serve as an eligible applicant and sponsor DAEOC for the application. $250,000 of CDBG funds will be requested.

Councilman Gilmore moved to authorize the mayor and/or staff to execute the necessary documents to sponsor DAEOC’s CDBG grant application for $250,000. The motion was seconded by Councilman Evans and the following roll call vote recorded:

Evans Aye, Gilmore Aye, Harris Aye, Merideth Aye,
Settles Aye, and Depro Aye, thereby being passed.
