

Uintah County HR

How to begin the application process

- 1) Click on the desired requisition

Please note the following instructions for general and law enforcement applications.

General Application Instructions:

Please upload a resume and cover letter. These documents will help determine eligibility for the position you are applying for. They are not mandatory, but are recommended for consideration.

Law Enforcement Application Instructions:

Include as a separate uploaded document the last 10 years of residential history (including physical addresses of residences, and names and phone numbers for all landlords). You can upload these documents in the same place that you upload your resume and cover letter.

We consider applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, creed, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.

Register for an account, or just begin applying. Any incomplete applications will be saved to the "My Applications" page.
