

Brittini Robidoux

Brittini Robidoux was raised in Ware MA after moving to Ware from Vermont at an early age. She has relatives who are hearing impaired, a son who is on the autism spectrum and many people in her life with mental illnesses and learning disorders. Being brought up around so many different types of disability she has a passion for learning about disabilities and is open to adding opinion and help in the areas she knows well. Brittini is the Chairperson of the SEPAC for Ware public schools and involves herself wherever she feels she can be of value.
