Explain the status of the work and estimated amount of time remaining until the next scheduled inspection, in addition to any hardships involved that will explain the lapse in inspections:

Reactivated permits will expire again if work is not completed within 180 days of permits re-issuance date. Permits may only be reactivated one time. Should your reactivated permit expire, a new permit shall thereafter be required, along with full payment of new fees and new plans may be necessary in order to reflect the current code requirements.
